THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—" The plays are approved by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India."

SRI K. VINAYAKAM :—" Are the Government aware of the fact that Malayalam actors have been engaged for this purpose and they have already entered into contracts with the Government of India to enact these dramas under the Second Five-Year Plan? If so, why not similar opportunity be given to Tamil actors to enact the same kind of dramas to popularize them in Tamil Nad? "

THE HON. SRI C. SUBRAMANIAM :—" I do not know what the hon. member means. In the scheme of the Government of India it has been recently stated that under the Song Drama Unit, a provision for plays produced through State Government in the form of a subsidy of not less than Rs. 1,500 would be made available to the State Governments for arranging performances in their regions. The details of the scheme have not been sent to us and we are awaiting the details."
